Course Benefits

Institute Goals and Overview

AACAP's Douglas B. Hansen, MD, 44th Annual Review Course emphasizes the most recent material relevant to the general practice of child and adolescent psychiatry and serves as an up-to-date review of child and adolescent psychiatry as well as addresses important clinical research. The course is designed to update practitioners on state-of-the-art standards of diagnosis and treatment.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this continuing medical education activity, the participant should be able to:

1. Identify the clinical picture, differential diagnosis using DSM-5, and information over the past ten years of child and adolescent psychiatry on course and risk factors associated with the main child and adolescent psychiatric disorders.
2. Provide descriptions of up-to-date diagnosis and treatment options for common psychiatric disorders in children and adolescents, including mood, behavior and anxiety disorders, developmental disorders, psychosis, and eating disorders, including obesity.
3. Discuss issues related to consultation liaison, telehealth, gender-related conditions, and catatonia.

Continuing Medical Education Credits

The American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry designates this live activity for a maximum of 18.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CME credits are not available to those who only purchase the course notebook or session recordings.

Disclosure Statement

Before the program, all faculty members will disclose the existence of any financial interests and/or other relationships (e.g., consultant, speakers bureau, grant recipient, research support, stock ownership) they may have with a) the manufacturers of any commercial products to be discussed during their presentation, and/or b) any commercial contributor to this activity. When unlabeled uses are discussed, these will also be indicated. These disclosures are also posted on AACAP's website at www.aacap.org/ReviewCourse-2019.

Course Notebook

Each participant receives a detailed course notebook (helpful for later review) that organizes course materials, including outlines, annotated bibliographies, self-assessment questions, and handout materials from presentations. The course notebook will be available for purchase after April 12, 2019, for $125 plus shipping and handling. To purchase, go to www.aacap.org and click on "Publications" after April 12, 2019.

Scholarships

A limited number of tuition scholarships to the Hansen Annual Review Course are available for medical students and general psychiatry residents. Contact meetings@aacap.org for details.

Conference Enrichment Package

Save Money! Purchase Your Session Recordings in Advance!

Session recordings of presentations from AACAP's Douglas B. Hansen, MD, 44th Annual Review Course are available for purchase as an educational supplement or for those who are unable to attend. Recorded sessions include the speaker's PowerPoint slides for a true recreation of the live presentation. Institute registrants receive a special discount on session recordings if purchased with registration. The recordings are distributed approximately three weeks after the meeting via email from MultiView. See the registration form to add this package. Session recording prices increase onsite and after the conference.
